

SCHOOLS HOLDING ANNUAL EXERCISES AND GRADUATIONS

Beginning of Commencement Season in Various Institutions.

The commencement season in Washington got fairly under way today, and before the end of the week, thousands of coveted diplomas will be in the hands of the students who have worked so hard for them during the last collegiate year.

While the commencement season here is not at its height, exercises are being conducted in a large number of the schools, which mark the closing of the year's work. The latter part of this week and the first of the coming week will see the greatest number of graduates that Washington has seen for years.

Baccalaureate services were preached in a dozen schools yesterday. Today class exercises are being held on lawns and campuses and in auditoriums. The more formal exercises will be conducted at night in the main buildings of the respective institutions.

Washington College.

Class day and graduating exercises, which began at 10:30 o'clock this morning, and which will end tonight, mark the closing of the commencement of the Washington College. On the college lawn this morning, the students and graduates conducted various exercises, which were witnessed by hundreds of alumni and friends of the school. The graduating exercises will be held tonight, beginning at 8 o'clock. The baccalaureate sermon was preached yesterday afternoon by the Rev. Earle Wilsey, pastor of the Vermont Avenue Christian Church. His topic was "The Aristocracy of Culture."

Holy Cross Academy.

A program of music, addresses, and recitations marked the opening of the commencement exercises at Holy Cross Academy in the assembly hall of that institution last night. Madonna night was observed. A brief address was made by the Rev. John E. Smyth, and the following young women participated in the program: Gertrude Dakin, Margaret Bonner, Mary Shugrue, Mary Fisher, Josephine E. Mayhew, E. E. Leutaud, Esther Lophi, Irene Schaefer, Edna Taylor, Estelle Stone, Evelyn Stone, and Mary McInerney.

National Park.

Class day is being celebrated at the National Park Seminary, at Forest Glen, Md., today. The eighteenth annual commencement of that institution, which is being attended by more than 150 of the alumnae, began last week, and will end Wednesday.

Gunston Hall.

The Rev. J. Henning Nelms, rector of the Church of the Ascension, delivered the baccalaureate sermon at the commencement exercises at Gunston Hall and Bristol School for Girls at St. Margaret's Episcopal Church last night. The graduating classes of both institutions occupied seats reserved in front of the auditorium for them. Dr. Nelms' subject was "The More Abundant Life."

College of Law.

The baccalaureate sermon of the Washington College of Law was preached by the Rev. Samuel H. Woodrow, pastor of the First Congregational Church, at that church last night in the presence of an audience which packed the auditorium. More than a hundred seats were reserved for the students and members of the faculty. A special musical program was given. Dr. Woodrow spoke on "Prayer and the Law."

Trinity College.

Trinity College campus will be bright this afternoon with the gay costumes of the participants in the play of Shakespeare's "As You Like It," which will be presented by the dramatic society of the institution as a part of the graduation week exercises.

The famous part of Rosalind will be taken by Miss Florence, and that of the banished duke by Miss Alice Sullivan, a senior.

Trip to Switzerland At Your Own Expense

Officers of the District of Columbia Sunday School Association are looking for persons who are willing to take a trip to Zurich, Switzerland, in July, 1912, and who are eligible to go as delegates to the world Sunday school conference to be held there.

The delegates must pay their own expenses. It is this factor which has caused the search to proceed slowly. Probably a dozen persons will go from Washington, and from the entire country several hundred are expected to make the trip.

The world conference is held every three years. The last having been held in Washington in 1910. W. M. Millan and Secretary James are taking the lead in the local association in seeking out eligible persons. The official selection of the delegates may not be made for several months.

Initiate Class In B'Nai B'Rith

A class of twenty-five candidates will be initiated into the mysteries of the Independent Order of B'Nai B'Rith tonight by the officers of Argo Lodge, No. 413, which, thereby, will become the strongest organization in the entire Fifth district.

Reports on the Asheville convention will be presented by delegates, charity work will be discussed by Alvin Newmeyer, Harry W. Hahn, Sidney V. Straus, and Leon Pretzfelder. Simon Wolf, Max Cohen, and Dr. Louis Stern will present papers, dealing in part with the coming of the District convention in 1913. Sol. Herzog, editor of Argo News, will make a brief speech. The initiation will be carried on by Dr. Abram Simon, I. Heidenheimer, and David Wolf. The business meeting, beginning at 8 o'clock at the Eighth Street Temple, will precede the initiation and social gathering of members.

INDEPENDENCE DAY NOISY AT PETWORTH

Special Committees Will Be Appointed For Celebration.

Plans for a noisy celebration of the Fourth of July will be made tonight at a meeting of the citizens of Petworth in the First Presbyterian Church, at 8 o'clock. Paul E. Lesh, president of the Petworth Citizens' Association, will preside. An executive committee and other committees to arrange for the celebration will be appointed.

It has been the custom in Petworth for the past several years to have a noisy Fourth, and this year it is hoped to have a better celebration than before. A program will be made tonight.

DEMOCRATS EXPECT LARGE VOTE TODAY IN PRIMARY HERE

Rival Factions Both Make Claims of Victory in District.

An unprecedentedly large vote probably will be polled in the Democratic District primary this afternoon because of the bitter character of the fight between the several factions, each of which was still breathing defiance at the others and making characteristically confident eleventh-hour predictions as to the result.

At the Champ Clark headquarters it was stated Edwin A. Newman, District national committeeman, has not told what really happened at the conference Saturday when Senator Stone and the Speaker's campaign manager, former Senator Fred T. Dubois, attempted to harmonize the two so-called Clark factions of the party in the District. Mr. Newman makes the following statement:

"Mr. Newman and his associates offered to agree that twelve Clark delegates be sent to the Baltimore convention to be named by the Costello faction and six by our associates, each to have half a vote at Baltimore."

Receive Rejection.

"We waited three hours for a response, and when it came it was a rejection of our proposal with an intimation we might have one-third of the delegation to Baltimore and nothing more."

The proposition to divide the delegation, half and half, was made not by Mr. Newman and his associates, it was declared at Clark headquarters in the Capitol House this morning, but by Senator Stone himself, and the Newman men are said to have turned it down. Besides, this hat-footed contradiction the latest statement from the Newman-Kelley-Clayton faction. Following publication last evening of a reported rumor that Mr. Newman was about to release his followers from pledges to Speaker Clark, the Clark headquarters issued the following statement:

"We understand the Newman faction contemplates casting off the mask and posing no longer as Clark men, and joining in with the Darf faction for an unopposed delegation. We reiterate that all Democrats in the District who favor the nomination of Champ Clark for the Presidency, by way of expressing their preference for Clark, should vote for the various delegate tickets upon which will be found a likeness of the Speaker."

"We know the District Democracy favors Speaker Clark. If we chose to do so we might properly characterize the Clark men who are named on a so-called Clark ticket when, in fact, a considerable portion of these men are for other candidates."

To this Newman replied: "It is a contemptible falsehood. We shall carry a large majority of the voting districts this afternoon and send our delegation to the Baltimore convention. This delegation will be instructed for Speaker Clark first, last, and all the time. It is a Clark ticket, composed of men who are for Clark even if not for some of his campaign managers."

Various figures were quoted as to the probable number of votes to be cast. F. J. Wisner, one of the Costello faction leaders, said that it would be difficult for more than sixty men an hour to vote and that with the polls open five hours from 8 to 3 p. m. a maximum of 300 votes to a voting precinct would be the limit. There are twenty-two voting precincts and Mr. Wisner believes that about 6,000 votes will be cast all told.

Others place the estimate lower. No colored men are expected to vote today. Colored Democrats have received an intimation that their votes are undervalued and all the 90,000 colored people of the city are in effect at least barred from the polls.

Otherwise the primary is to be more or less of an open one. Absence of regular registration lists in the District prevents anything like a systematic enrollment of the voters of one party or another and the leaders of the various voting districts by no means know personally all the men who will come up to vote.

It is provided by law that a man may be challenged on the ground that he is not a member of the party conducting the primary, but outside of officeholders of prominence there is very little knowledge as to what is the political station of most residents of the District.

Democratic Primaries Today

Polls open from 8 to 3 p. m. Three delegates and three alternates to be chosen from each of twenty-two election districts to Wednesday's District convention, which chooses six delegates and six alternates to the Baltimore convention.

Tickets in the field: Costello ticket, officially endorsed by Clark, bureau; Newman ticket, supporting Speaker Clark; Carr-Darr ticket, for uninstructed delegates, and Mitchell ticket, for uninstructed delegates.

WOMAN SPEEDS OFF IN MACHINE AFTER RUNNING OVER LAD

Police Find No Clue to Identity of Person Who Hit Maryland Boy.

The Washington police, acting with the Maryland authorities, are today endeavoring to get some clue to the identity of the driver of a large touring car that ran down and seriously injured fifteen-year-old Vernon Hines on the road near Ridgeville, Howard county, Md., Saturday night.

According to a telephone message received at headquarters from Chief of Police Woch, of Baltimore City, Md., the automobile was occupied by a lone woman, who sped on toward Washington after the accident, and left the boy lying in the road. The only description of the automobile was that it was a large touring car, while Chief Woch said he had not been able to find any one who saw the machine, who could describe the woman driving it.

Young Hines, who lives in New Market, Frederick county, was riding toward his home on a bicycle when he was hit by the machine. Unable to walk, the boy crawled a quarter of a mile in the direction of his home, where he was found by a resident of Frederick, who was on his way home from Baltimore, and who took Hines in his automobile and hurried him to the home of Dr. H. H. Hopkins. Dr. Hopkins found no bones broken, but believes the boy was internally injured.

Funds for Missionaries.

A report just issued by Mrs. L. Flora Plummer, corresponding secretary of the Sabbath school department of the general conference of Seventh Day Adventists, shows that during the past year $15,837 was contributed by the Sabbath schools of the Adventists for the support of foreign missionary endeavors. The amount contributed is a gain of $2,514 over the amount donated the previous year.

DICTAGRAPH USED TO CONVICT DARROW IN BRIBERY TRIAL

Chief Investigator Declares
"All Roads Are Closed to Attorney."

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 27.—Clarence Darrow will be convicted by the dictagraph, today asserted Capt. Robert J. Foster, chief investigator for the National Erectors' Association, who is in Los Angeles watching the bribery case.

Foster is the man who, at the time of the McNamara trial, installed the dictagraph which he claimed recorded the conversations held between Darrow and John R. Harrington, associate counsel with the Chicago attorney in the dynamite case. He had been sent here by the erectors, and was unknown in connection with the case. He engaged a room adjoining that of Harrington in the Hotel Hayward, and, taking advantage of Harrington's absence, installed his dictagraph and connected it with a receiver in his own room. Here he held two stenographers. Foster asserts the men recorded every conversation carried on between the two McNamara counsel.

The Darrow trial was scheduled to resume at 1:30 p. m., with George N. Lockwood on the stand.
